The Expanse Of God

How can the mind of man come close to fathoming Creation from God and His eternity?
How far back can you go in "time" to find your beginning when "beginning" does not exist but only for God?
How far into the future can you see the expanse of Creation to a future with no end because only God is the "end"?
How "big" is God when He alone is the beginning and the end, and He is everything in all of eternity?

Rev 22:13
I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

(See Also; Rev 1:8, 1:11, 1:17)

Since God is the one and only beginning and the end, then Creation in some "way, shape, or form" has always existed. Meaning you have always existed.

Rom 11:2
God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith of Elias? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying,

Therefore, as the sands on the seashore that cannot count the number of souls, how many planets, galaxies, and universes exist and souls within, and is eternal?

Rom 8:29
For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren.

Since your were predestinated, and he knew you prior to Jesus, where were you?

Rom 9:27
Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved:

Understand that "remnant" is within time, within an awareness of "a" life within eternal lives. How many lives, worlds, universes throughout "time" and the "remnants" will be saved. (As scripture refers too)

Jer 33:22
As the host of heaven cannot be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured: so will I multiply the seed of David my servant, and the Levites that minister unto me.

1Ti 2:4 Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.

That all will be saved.

Titus 2:11 For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men,

There is only ONE God.

Eph 4:6
One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.

He is the only one that can produce physical matter from consciousness. A little god such as yourself can only produce a thought and action. Therefore, everything that exists in all of eternity is the thought manifested from consciousness, but all from one God.

2Co 3:5
Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God;

John 3:27 John answered and said, A man can receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven.

Biblically stated from Jesus.

John 5:30
I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me.

John 15:5
I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.

James 1:17
Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

Notice how all "good" can only come from God? What about evil? Doesn't that tell you that the thoughts of man can only produce evil thoughts? That evil thought can only exist and manifest from within the mind-brain and to a possible physical action?

One life is "finite." Eternal life are "lives" eternal.
Time is only within one life. Eternal lives experience no time.
The Word is eternal, and the Word is eternal life. The Word as understood within one life is bound by "time" and is perceived and lives within those boundaries.
The Word as understood and perceived as eternal, is from within the spirit-soul that is eternal and not bound by "one life."
